What User likes about Wild Flower Kitchen:

Since we moved out of Red Lodge, we've heard about WildFlower Kitchen. I found myself as a Thanksgiving dinner and ordered Turkey and the pages. Spectacular food. I don't know where to start, but the dishes were unique and traditional at the same time. The best Thanksgiving dinner ever. Thank you. I can't wait to see you for dinner next weekend. What User doesn't like about Wild Flower Kitchen:

The good first. The place has a nice appearance with some great outdoor dining and the staff were friendly. However the food was just poor. The meat was burned, the beans were canned quality, and the Mac and cheese was bland. I did overhear that they were having staffing issues, so perhaps this was just the result of a hard day, but based on my experience I wouldn't recommend this restaurant. A round trip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is culinarily effortless possible: Wild Flower Kitchen in Absarokee traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, Mashed Potatoes or Roasts with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. With fresh seafood, meat, as well as corn and potatoes, here is also South American cooked, this establishment offers a delicious brunch in the morning.
