eating is authentic, and I love that. even if they have big salsa, we have a bad charge, but it was good next time. (authenticity that causes happen from time to time.) anyone who loves real homemade Mexican cuisine will love this place! it is not tex-mex, (at the limit art.) my employer bought as a special tasty, lunch for us and the food was perfect, the salsa was so delicious, and the cheese sauce was just as I li... not the worst mex I've ever had, but close to it, they were quite understated, so the service was slow, but also disgusting. no refills and water search were like a chore for them. the queso was totally bland and huh was chewing. the salsa was 50/50, because when they brought out two tass of it, one was hot and the other was cold. the money was not worth it and I won't be back. I'm sorry for those involved. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. Anticipate the varied, delicious Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers).
