What User doesn't like about Raelyn's Pub:

We hadn't been here in a while, so we figured we would see if it has improved. They've gone backwards. The service wasn't bad. Our server was nice. The food was just average. My calzone had water leaking out of it on my plate. There was no sauce in the calzone. They give you a tiny cup of sauce. The Calzone was huge, but not enough meat in it. My wife did like her chicken wrap. The calzone is much better at Sam Larom... read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its visitors, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat.

The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. If you're hungry for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: delightful meals, roasted with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive diversity of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you can enjoy here delicious American menus like Burger or Barbecue.
