Took my cousin and her friend from out of town here for some Hawaiian cuisine and was very satisfied with the whole experience. My cousin's gluten free questions were answered gracefully and we got the Local boy, poi, and the chicken to share at the owner's suggestion. Appreciated her honesty at the portions and not letting us order too much for each person. And as I live here, I must say that was like the best Kalua... read more. What

Ophelia W doesn't like about Kehau's Kitchen:

Fod; we had two orders of soyu chicken with rice, the chicken was not fully cooked and either of the rice when I mentioned it to the server, she claimed it was a different kind of brand rice. I'm Asian and know my rice, the rice is definitely not cooked. Server; the service was okay. Ambiance; none. Don't understand why having such great reviews of the place read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. Kehau's Kitchen from 'Aiea is a suitable bar to have a beer after work, and sit with friends or alone, For a snack in between, the tasty sandwiches, small salads, and other snacks are suitable.
