Food was great as always and this is a lovely venue as you can hear well enough to have conversations. The main letdown this time was the blatant disregard or different expectations amongst staff with regards to face masks. Irrespective of whether there have been local cases or whether they agree with the mask rules, at least of the staff didn't wear a mask properly or at all. The manager we assumed that was who they... User doesn't like about Whitegrain:

after personal booking with this restaurant for Friday night we were shocked to discover that the night was closed. no effort has been made to contact us, even if they had our contact data and the booking would like to take part. they did not seem to have spoken out. very unprofessional and we will no longer try to go there. Whitegrain from Warragul is a good option for a bar if you want to have a beer after work and hang out with friends, On the menu there are also several Asian menus. It's precisely the freshness and lightness paired with the original Vietnamese spices that not only brings delectable menus to the plate, but also puts the visitors into a pleasant holiday feeling temporarily, The inventive fusion of different dishes with fresh and partially daring ingredients is highly valued by the guests - a good example of Asian Fusion.
