The restaurant from Chicago offers 503 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $118.6.

What LauraM likes about Boka:

The cuisine and service are among the best I've ever experienced. We selected the tasting menu and everything tasted amazing. Not only did they cater to our dietary restrictions, but they went above and beyond to ensure everyone was included in the culinary experience. Our waiter, Augustus, mastered the menu and could speak to every item and made precise recommendations based on our preferences and restrictions. He... read

more. What Berry_F doesn't like about Boka:

We picked this restaurant based on the many excellent reviews and the Michelin star. The service was good but the room was too loud for my liking and the food (I had the chicken liver mousse, the gnudi and the roasted chicken) was good but unremarkable. read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. If you want to try delicious American meals like burgers or barbecue, Boka from Chicago is the place to be, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. If you'd like something dessert to finish off, Boka does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, You'll find delicious South American meals also in the menu.
