Live in NC now and can't find a true cuban sandwich back home. So when we come home to visit family that's what we look for. The place we usually get them from is no longer in business. So I searched Google and found Kims Cuban Sandwich Shop just down the road from where we are staying. Reviews were good so went to check it out. Ordered a large cuban and a few devil crabs and potato balls.

This was my first visit to Kims, and I was very disappointed. The devil crabs that we ordered were burnt on the outside and had absolutely no crab in them at all and had a very bitter taste. The cuban sandwiches were overwhelmingly salty and I was unable to finish. I could've just eaten the beans and rice that I ordered, but they forgot to put it in the bag. The only thing that was good was the red velvet cake, and t... read more.
