Without a doubt no questions asked the best sushi restaurant I've been to in my life and top 5 all around restaurant of all time. The waitresses are appropriately attentive, the sushi is out of control authentic, and you truly feel like you're family! Really genuinely enjoyed my meal from start to finish! Highly recommended! read more. What Peter Shen doesn't like about Sushi Hiroyoshi:

We got the Omakase meal for $200pp+. Kaiseiki courses were good, somewhat interesting. However for Omakase we always look forward to the nigiri. The nigiri pieces were disappointing to say the least. To start, the rice was not cooked properly — it was undercooked and missing the vinegar taste to complement the fish. The pieces were tiny, about the size of 2 quarters side by side, small enough that you couldn't really... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. The guests love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Sushi Hiroyoshi from Las Vegas, with its unconventional Asian fusion cuisine - the perfect blend of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, and you can look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine. The tasty Sushi such as Nigiri and Inside-Out however, is the undisputed highlight of this place, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
