What Reuben likes about Vintage Kitchen: I expected good and I got better. This was lunch, business people with an hour or so. Rappahannock soup was quite good however, I think there was salmon in it. The pumpkin soup was tasty however a little too salty. My Carnegie (Reuben Sand) was very good also very reasonable with a salad or soup called half-and-half. The Caesar salad was nice looking and fresh the caprice sand had a fat piece of cheese on it also loo... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. WLAN is available free of charge. What Margaret Miller doesn't like about Vintage Kitchen:

The positive: the truffle mac, potato app, and cheese plate is great. Chicken and waffles was pretty decent. That said, the service was cringeworthy for a few reasons. Turns out the burgers were mixed to order, which is not normal. None of our entrees required more than 15 minutes, from fire to window. For reasons unbeknownst to restaurant owners everywhere, management staff left before closing. There wasn't a sing... read more. Perfectly pairing with the dishes of the local are the fresh and tasty juices on the drinks menu, They also present tasty South American menus to you on the menu. Moreover, there are delicious American meals, such as burgers and grilled meat, The barbecue is freshly prepared here on an open flame.
