The place from New York offers 130 different meals and drinks on the card at an average price of $15.4. What KatherineN likes about ViceVersa:

Vice Versa is the perfect place for pre-theater dining or really any time. The food is superb, the staff is cordial and attentive without hovering. The setting is lovely, especially the back garden. It is sort of an oasis in crowded midtown. It is always my first choice but not always easy to get a reservation, esp on weekend evenings. It is pricey, but no more so than other places in the area. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What SimonP doesn't like about ViceVersa:

Over priced expensive food, which was cooked to a very poor standard I could have cooked better myself. If you have money to through away then this maybe the place for you. If your looking for a good pizza, forget it. read more. At ViceVersa, a restaurant with Italian dishes from New York, you can enjoy typical Italian cuisine, including classics like pizza and pasta, Don't miss the chance to have the delicious pizza, prepared straight out from the oven in an traditional way. Not to be overlooked is also the large selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, and you may look forward to the scrumptious classic seafood cuisine.
