Nice people. Food is fine. Place is clean. For people who like their bread toasted and not just warmed I would prefer the Subway on Pulaski Blvd. The hot toasted sandwiches like meatball marinara get very soggy when the bread is lightly toasted (warmed). It would hold up better on my short drive home if the bread was toasted and not just warmed up. read more. What 3P \(1 1 year ago on Google\) doesn't like about Subway:

This location is okay, but not really a good one either. I've had people rush through my order and give me some very lop sided sandwiches because they weren't actually paying attention. One lady literally wasn't even looking at my sub as she assembled it. Never had any major issues though, so it's fine if you don't have a closer subway to you. read more.
