What Matt Peppes likes about Eight Bar and Patio: Great atmosphere! The vibe is super low key but still brings an upscale element. They have a good list of wines and signature cocktails to wet your whistle so we ended up ordering a bottle of their Pinot noir. We started with the burrata appetizer, which is out of this world delicious, and then we both ended up ordering the classic steak frites...which had crazy good flavor as well. We had the best service throughout... read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also have something outside, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Howard Armstrong doesn't like about Eight Bar and Patio: The food was excellent but a little pricey for the portions received. The service was a challenge because the server did not speak/understand English very well. When asked about corkage fees we were told $55... So we went with the house Shiraz (Copper Moon) and that was $55 for a bottle of wine that is retailed for about $7... So all in all good food, WAY over priced! read more. If you feel like something sweet, you should visit Eight Bar and Patio because they have delicious desserts that will definitely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, You can also discover nice South American menus in the menu. In addition, you can order fresh grilled barbecue, the customers love having the chance to watch the latest games or races on the big TV in this sports bar, while also enjoying food and drinks.
