The menu of Double Chin from Boston includes 322 menus. On average, menus or drinks on the menu cost about $13.5. The categories can be viewed on the menu below. What Polly Ruecker likes about Double Chin: The place is really pretty inside, the staff were amazingly friendly and fast, and the food is some of my favorite, period. Will always go again and I can't recommend enough. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What Darwin Mosciski doesn't like about Double Chin:

Not only did the restaurant seem ill-prepared for Sunday brunch hours, they were disorganized and forgetful (needing repeated reminders of the original order, in addition to the long delay in receipt of food and ordering).

Taro fries were inventive and delicious but inconsistent (some were undercooked). Matcha pancakes were flavorful and soft, although more condense milk syrup should 've been provided on the side to... read more. Experience in Double Chin from Boston the diversity of tasty Chinese cuisine, traditionally cooked in a wok, The inventive fusion of different meals with fresh and occasionally daring ingredients is highly valued by the customers - a good example of Asian Fusion. The menus are prepared typically Asian, Besides the yummy sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks also make a good snack.
