It was a pre concert dinner, I found the service very good eventhough the kitchen was rushed and a little behind. I was thinking that maybe the restaurant could have a pre- concert menu as they are right in front of Bellas Artes and they and the clients could feel more at ease. It is usually a great place to go for dinner but a few times we have left a little disappointed with the service but this time they served us... read more. What JeanG doesn't like about Seccarelli Ristorante:

Not only was the service slow and a dessert took half an hour to be brought to the table...A "special" plate which is similar to one on the menu for $21, ended up being a whopping $49...Which we only found out upon paying the tab...that kind of pricing of a "special" is unconscionable and with that, I am never to go to the restaurant again...
