We had a large party of 18 and they were easily able to seat us at one long table in their main dining room. Fantastic service from our waiter, Marlin, and we all thoroughly enjoyed the food. Would definitely recommend this restaurant and think it was a perfect place for a large group. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Alfonzo Langosh doesn't like about Roy's - Chicago:

Ambiance was decent and wait staff was good. Other than that nothing else I can say positively bout this place Our meals were luke warm, bland and some of the sides had no taste to them whatsoever. While they have a bar and there own cocktails if you ask for something not on the menu, u probably wont get it. And yes, unfortunately even the cocktail drinks we did order tasted horrible. Bad bar staff..On top of all this... read more. At Roy's - Chicago from Chicago, scrumptious sushi (e.g., Maki and Sashimi) is prepared for you, along with numerous additional variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, and it's made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, easily digestible Japanese dishes prepared. You can just get one of the tasty sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, if you're not that ravenous, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
