The Menu of Piccolo Ristorante Italiano from Menlo Park contains about 39 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $16.6. What Montana Leannon likes about Piccolo Ristorante Italiano: We were in Milwaukee for a convention and noticed that Pier 106 was the only seafood restaurant around so decided to give it a try. Its right on the Riverwalk so a great location especially for those who like to sit outside (we didn't). We had great service and our meal was very good. We enjoyed an appetizer of mussels & clams which had white sauce over them - sauce reminded me of New England clam chowder - very... read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Kennedy Dickinson doesn't like about Piccolo Ristorante Italiano: Went for Downtown Dining Week. This restaurant was on the $35 list, however service was significantly below that level. There was a long wait between courses, but plates were not cleared off the table until the next course arrived. Our server appeared very disinterested in our table. It also took a long time for drink orders to be delivered. New silverware was not provided and I was explicitly asked to remove my... read more. In Piccolo Ristorante Italiano, a place with Italian menus from Menlo Park, original Italian cuisine, with main courses such as pizza and pasta, is available to you, and you can look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
