What Athena Jakubowski likes about Petit Bistro: Overall an enjoyable experience the food was delicious though the duck fat could have been rendered better and the scallops with a little more heat and color but overall very pleased read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What General Anderson doesn't like about Petit Bistro:

We made reservations more than a month in advance, while there we were asked to move to the bar to accommodate a larger table at the end of our meal, for a meal this seemed like poor planning on the restaurant's part. Reservations were for We arrived early, this request was about minutes into dinner service. They did comp two desserts, but it was disrespectful to ask on a special occasion. read more. If you feel like a dessert, you should visit Petit Bistro because they have enchanting desserts that will surely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, well digestible Mediterranean courses are also on the menu. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you may look forward to the fine classic seafood cuisine.
