We were in Milwaukee for a convention and noticed that Pier 106 was the only seafood restaurant around so decided to give it a try. Its right on the Riverwalk so a great location especially for those who like to sit outside (we didn't). We had great service and our meal was very good. We enjoyed an appetizer of mussels & clams which had white sauce over them - sauce reminded me of New England clam chowder - very... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Ulises Crist doesn't like about Peohe's - Coronado Waterfront Restaurant:

Ask for ahi tuna, they didn't have it. That knocked out about 1/3 of the menu. Ordered mussels + clams. Clams were undercooked and didn't even open. Mussels were empties for about half of them. Waitress was new and apologetic, I hope she finds a new job read more. For those who want to a beer after work and sit with friends or alone, Peohe's - Coronado Waterfront Restaurant from Coronado is a good bar, Naturally, you should also taste the delicious burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges served. Not to be left out is the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, and you may look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine.
