The place from Seattle offers 184 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average $20.8. What Teagan Christiansen likes about Ray's Cafe:

Excellent food and service! I had scallops, they were perfectly cooked and served on top of light fluffy butternut squash ravioli. My husband had filet and short ribs; so tender you could cut them with a fork! We also had dessert which was equally as fabulous! We had a table in the front which was great for people watching. Highly recommend!!! read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Connor Zulauf doesn't like about Ray's Cafe:

I hadn't been to Ray's in years, but our son moved to Ballard, so we thought we would give it a try. It was lunch, so we ate at the café upstairs. Great view, excellent service. The food is acceptable, but not what it should be for the prices. My fish was slightly overcooked. I wish they had a regular green salad. Caesar isn't my favorite. read more. At Ray's Cafe in Seattle, there are fine sandwiches, small salads and further snacks for quick hunger, as well as hot and cold drinks, In addition, the charming desserts of the local shine not only on children's plates or in the eyes of the little guests.
