The restaurant from Washington, D.C. offers 64 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $10.7. What Gladys Rau likes about The Airedale:

This was our second time at Thea, taking our son and his wife. They ordered the arancini since she's from Tuscany, and even with her high bar, they loved it. My wife had the pasta with seafood and really enjoyed it. Our son had ordered the veal Milanese but missed the last one, so chose the chicken Milanese and gave it high marks. We shared an orange cheesecake and coffee, all of which were generous and very flavorful... read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What Hallie Halvorson doesn't like about The

Airedale:

I made a brunch reservation only at the door to say that the airedale does not accept any reservations on the game day. this was not specified on open table, and the bartender was somewhat confused/rude when we tried to ask the clearing. ends up scrambling to find a new place for our big group without announcing during a weekend.
