The restaurant from Champaign offers 44 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average $19.8. What Yolanda Heller likes about bacaro:

Ate here w our kids and had a nice meal. Kids had a buffet designed for them which worked out great and. One higher end restaurants should heed this call. $15 each but included lots of choices which kids love as well as deserts and a drink. I had the swordfish which was a bit overdone and a bit tasteless. My wife had the filet which was served over a tomatoe based medley of zucchini and squash which really didn't go... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What Bessie Herman doesn't like about bacaro:

My wife and I really wanted to like this restaurant. We knew, going in, that the menu was limited but there were a couple of items that interested us. Low and behold, the items we wanted to try were not on the menu that night.

The food we eventually ordered were not very inspired. The plating was average and the food was average. Considering the prices, we were, to say the least, unimpressed. read more.
