Lunch is always fun at Queen's Cuisine. The food is top notch with several great selections. I chose 'a taste of everything'. Soup, quiche, salad, 1/2 chicken salad sandwich on a croissant. All delicious. Raisin scone with clotted cream and lemon curd. Perfection. Oh, and a cup of Earl Grey. Our server was efficient but a flat affect. Not very welcoming. Maybe just having a bad day. Overall a great lunch with friends... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What Haley Harris doesn't like about Queen's Cuisine:

I was very disappointed. I've eaten there twice before without no issues. This time I requested no salmon since one the the savory dishes being served was a salmon mousse. It was replaced with a very cheap ham lunch meat and fig jam finger sandwich. There was already a fig jam and goat cheese finger sandwich being served. They should have made the effort to replace the salmon dish with one of equal quality and not ju... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Queen's Cuisine in Edwardsville traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, For a snack, the delicious sandwiches, small salads and other snacks are suitable. Not to be left out is the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, and you can look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine.
