The restaurant from Chicago offers 196 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average $12.1. What Živomir Botorić likes about Tanuki:
Definitely make a reservation because it is small and I could see not getting a table. The food is so delicious and reasonably priced. I was impressed with the quality service and ambiance as well. BYOB makes it a 10/10 for me. read more. What Anika Fisher doesn't like about Tanuki:
The service was very good, but the food was average; old lime slices, fish not so fresh. I was surprised the chef let the fish tacos leave the kitchen...unacceptable! read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Tanuki from Chicago, with its successful Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of familiar meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to prepare easily digestible Japanese menus. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, among the delicacies of this restaurant are particularly the Sushi and Inside-Out.
