The place from Brooklyn offers 85 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average $8.7. What Christopher Eu likes about Falansai:

One of the better restaurants in NYC for a while. It's an interesting Vietnamese fusion with clean and distinct taste and great service. My favourites were tuna rice cracker and duck necks among the smaller dishes and for the larger ones the mackerel in curry and pork with rice and egg were divine. They also have a great selection of wines and the decor is super cool. Definitely one of the nicer Bushwick places at the... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. The guests love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Falansai from Brooklyn, with its successful Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide assortment of beers from the region and the whole world. It's precisely the freshness and lightness paired with the typical spices that not only brings fine dishes to the plate, but also puts the visitors into a pleasant holiday feeling temporarily, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
