What Isabell Grant likes about Katsuno:

Katsuno is where you make a reservation for authentic highest level Japanese cuisine in Queens. The agedashi tofu, duck udon, salmon appetizers and salads, beef tataki, poached egg, octopus vinaigrette, are all amazing read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What Carley Spencer doesn't like about Katsuno:

Absolutely the best Sashimi we've ever had. Flavorful, tender and served at the proper temperature to enhance taste unlike most Sushi restaurants that serve icebox sushi (in accordance with Dept of Health regulations). The wasabi is real and the soy sauce home brewed. Truly an exceptional meal at 3x the price of standard sushi houses. Is it worth $135 for 2 Yes to experience a fine Omikase dinner but too expensive to... read more. A visit to Katsuno is particularly valuable due to the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian meals. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Katsuno. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known dishes too boring can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients enjoy, Especially fine are also the Sashimi and delicacies like Inside-Out from this restaurant.
