The place from New York offers 881 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average $91.6. What Dawn Boehm likes about Blue Water Grill:

Food was good except for the Caesar salad with radicchio. Not a great taste, but the server fixed it. We loved the heirloom beets salad, kale salad, sushi rolls, and dumplings. We will be back!! read more. What Marquise

Goldner doesn't like about Blue Water Grill:

Food, very good. Service, pretty good, although felt more than a little pressure to eat up and get out . Ambiance was totally ruined by table cleaners/dressers lurking around our table waiting for customers to get up and leave so they could finish work and go home. Given the prices, will not go back. read more. If you're hungry for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: tasty meals, roasted with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, among the delicacies of this establishment are particularly the Maki and Sashimi. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you may look forward to the delicious typical seafood cuisine.
