Very nice coffee shop. I tried the nitro cold brew my favorite and the wife had a chai latte. The nitro was pretty good and the wife really liked the chai. The space is very welcoming with plenty of seating. We sat at a high table and admired their wine selection. Seemed like they had something for everyone. The staff was friendly and engaged in some small talk while our drinks were prepared. I really enjoyed talking... read more. Coffee taste was good and staff was very friendly but my barista had no idea how steam milk. There was a huge amount of foam on the top, and the milk was not even warm. My wife's latte was a little better but also cold and not really silky. If you just get a espresso shot, a black coffee or a cold drink, you are good. I was glad to see that they have gluten free and vegan options and the banana bread was good. read more.
