Simple and good! It felt weird to wait for a table outside the restaurant, but once we went inside I understood. Service was great and the food was actually really good. The country fried steak was much different than what I've had before at other places. However it tasted great. The grits were a combo of yellow and white. The eggs were cooked to perfection. The pecan waffle was very scrumptious. Be prepared to wait.... read more. What

Aileen Hand doesn't like about The Breakfast Club:

Very moderate. See online in the menu before we leave for the holiday and it looked really good? a good selection of food and so on. When we came there, they had a very limited menu? very disappointing. The food was okay, but I could? Would not recommend, but unfortunately in this small town there was not much to choose.
