This is a must-eat restaurant if you're in the Piedmont Oakland area. Very intimate setting and AMAZING food. The edamame is unlike anything you've had before, and the curries are superb (try the yellow curry! . Their take on Pad Thai is very unique. My partner and I come here every three weeks and we live in SF! read more. What

Laron Gorczany doesn't like about NINNA RESTAURANT:

The food was alright, nothing to write home about (or overeat for). The service was adequate but a little perfunctory. I thought it was odd we were never offered a drink menu and I actually had to ask for one halfway through the meal—and half the wines were crossed off by having white paper taped mostly over those lines. A quiet and pleasant enough place to catch up with a friend, but probably not somewhere I'll dine... read more. If
