This is Tulare's hidden little gem. If you are new to Tulare you have to visit Hazel's Kitchen. It's a restaurant inside an old Victorian home that has been redesigned for a restaurant. The soups, sandwiches and salads are delicious! Their iced tea is very good too. Also almost all their decor is for sale too, the owner is an interior decorator. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What Edythe Reinger doesn't like about Hazel's Restaurant:

A very lively and beautiful atmosphere, my only issue was the food was absolutely meh....The service was also amazing. A very limited option of items to choose from, sandwiches and salads. The bread in the sandwiches should be toasted, because mine was falling apart. read more. At Hazel's Restaurant from United States, there are delicious sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks for quick hunger in between, as well as cold and hot beverages, There are also nice South American meals in the menu. Furthermore, you'll find scrumptious American meals, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu, The visitors of the restaurant are also thrilled with the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
