Rubino's restaurant is a great Italian fresco dine in gem within Sacramento area nearby freeway accessibility where locals there takes time to drive and visit. Very fun fare generous on servings of sourdough breads with dipping sauce of marinated herbs balsamic with olive oil. Enjoyed appetizer soft calamari but crunchy crumbs. We ordered grilled salmon chicken breasts main dish with amazing full cup servings of riso... read more. What

Reginald Denesik doesn't like about Rubino's Ristorante:

The waitress was great and honest the saving grace of this place when the food made me sick the next day. It was very saucy, but the sauce tasted like 'Cream of Cheese' and was NOT great. My date also felt like this and he manages a restaurant. It was dark on the outside, so we were not even sure it was open first. This could be problematic and dangerous. read more.
