Pretty good buffet, except for the price, about $16 lunch inc tax and a little tip. That's getting up there, but I guess what else isn't? The food is fresh, just get here at 11:00 am when they open and don't complain that the food is old when you arrive 30 min before closing, cause no they ain't gonna make fresh food on all the trays just for you. What you CAN do is just ask for fresh food of the dish you want, and... read more. What Brooke Kilback

doesn't like about King Buffet:

I wouldn't recommend going before they close because some of their food looks like it's been sitting all day. I had a difficult time communicating with the two girls who were cooking my chowmein because they were unable to tell me what sauces they were going to put in my dish. A customer had to translate for me in Spanish. They need to have staff who speak English especially when we're wanting to know what dishes or... read more.
