After a bad start to our 3yr anniversary dinner and to have to leave another restaurant, we chose the olive garden over the street. From the time we went, we were greeted by the host and sat immediately. The waitress Karina was absolutely amazing!! The food was a pleasure!! Then we were surprised with a complimentary dessert that our waitress took it to decorate our dessert plate with a Happy 3yr Anniversary! Demetry... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What Camila Dach doesn't like about Olive Garden:

Went to OG after not having gone for a while. Ordered online to pick up curbside. That part went well. We ordered Tour of Italy, Chicken Marsala and Spaghetti with Meat Sauce. Breadsticks were hot, soft and good. We got a large amount of salad but there was wilted, brown lettuce on the bottom of each container. Tour of Italy was OK as was Spaghetti. Chicken Marsala tasted odd as if they used really strong Marsala that... read more.
