Last night had a wonderful evening with drinks and dinner during sunset....mesmerizing! The staff was friendly and helped my navigation. Chose the chicken breast with garlic and was not disappointed. However, I recommend a tip to add Cilantro to the potato wedges for an additional kick like Diadems Lounge in Prüm, Germany. Minor cons were the tasteless Sangria and the overpriced German giant $40 a bottle. I bought th... read more. What Eugene FranECKi doesn't like about Georges at the Cove:

Incredibly good food... terrible experience. We were with friends living in La Jolla... we all knew Georges was good for excellent food... some of the best in San Diego County. And... we knew it would be expensive... why not... the best things in life. While we ate our appetizers, our duck came. From there... including the check delivery... for a few hundred dollars... We knew they didn't plan anything except to turn... read more. If you want to eat something tasty quickly, Georges at the Cove from La Jolla offers fine sandwiches, small salads and other snacks, as well as cold and hot beverages, Especially with the bite-sized, Tapas you can't absolutely nothing wrong, because there is something for every palate. Moreover, there are tasty American menus, such as burgers and grilled meat, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
