the fish was crunchy and fluffy. the pommes were house style, thin with some potato skins. the cole Slav was creamy. there were rye brot and rolls, butter and teersauce. it is served family style. service was fast and free refilling on soda. the waitress was helpful and has checked us for everything they can eat. I thought it was a good fish, but a bit expensive. I'm going back. read more. The catering service is also provided by the restaurant for its visitors, There are also some international meals to choose from on the menu.
