What Geraldine Hernández Al Attrach likes about Terrace Five:

We went to MOMA to enjoy a day of Art and when we felt that we needed a break we stepped into the Terrace cafe. We didn't have a reservation so we had to wait like 20 minutes, to get in. However, the wait was worth it.

We enjoyed a table on the patio and ordered a Gazpacho, carrot cake and some other chocolate cake and coffee because we miss Spain, and as a surprise, it was really good. The staff are very nice and fri... read more.

The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, and there is complimentary WiFi. What Agnes Frank doesn't like about Terrace Five:

Absurd prices. I ordered a gazpacho and asked for some bread. They brought three small slices of over toasted and oily bread that I did not like. I told the manager that all I wanted is a slice of untoasted plain bread. He said there was no such thing, but took off my bill the $3 (yes, three dollars) that would have been the price of three measly slices of bread. read more.
