This is a San Diego tourist visitor “must do”. Likely the wife will have to drag the husband to this “shopping Mecca”, but once there I believe that the food and drink will make it a good time for all! Come early and make a day of it as there is lots to explore. There is a huge parking lot by the main building...which is nice!VictorB read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is free WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations.

What Sarah Rowlett doesn't like about Liberty Public Market:

I was so excited to finally try this place but the veggies weren't fresh and the portion was really small. The broccoli was brown and the whole dish tasted like a reheated frozen dinner. I would have rather waited a bit and had it made fresh. read more. Crispy pizza is baked fresh at Liberty Public Market in San Andreas using a traditional method, A catering service offered by the restaurant allows you to enjoy the dishes on-site or at the event. Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a wide variety of fine and regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, for breakfast they serve a extensive breakfast here.
