I grew up in Thailand and this is my place when I want to eat comfort. We'll never look at the menu. Instead, we only asked the cook for his recommendations for the day and trust him completely with our order. If possible, we love to get the whole fried fish served with mangoslaw, which is hard to find in the states. We love her so much that we let her accompany our wedding last year. This is the place I take my fath... read more. What User doesn't like about Sabuy Sabuy II Berkeley:

Decent Thai food. The menu used to be a little more adventurous, but it's still solid. A personal favorite is the noodle salad, a blend of interesting textures and flavors. Atmosphere is a bit down-scale, and service perfunctory, but it's quiet. The food is not overly sweet, and the flavors are bright. read more.
