We ordered a salad and were enjoying it. After a couple of bites, our hot entrees came. We asked to have some time to eat the salad. The server nodded, removed the hot entrees, and then brought them back minutes later. Although the restaurant was not busy, we felt very rushed read more. What User doesn't like about Permanently Closed Xanh:

We were disappointed in the service and food. Had been going there starting with the original small venue. Have always been very pleased with the food until now. Place was quite empty yet server was hardly around yet seemed rushed. The only relatively good service was from the bus person. Probably won't be back read more. In the kitchen of Permanently Closed Xanh in Mountain View, typical Asian spices tasty traditional dishes are prepared, Furthermore, the visitors love the inventive combination of different menus with new and partially experimental products - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. Sometimes you may not want to consume a lot, in this case one of the tasty sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack is just right, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive selection of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
