What User likes about Vino Locale Santa Cruz: Food was great and so was the view, but we arrived a little after with friends. Ordered some food and wine flights and were told we had to get out in minutes because the wait staff had to go home since had come in at and had to go home before so the owner didn't have to pay overtime. At we tried to order desert but we're told we were too late. Not very acceptable. Stagger the shift so you can serve people without pay... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Vino Locale Santa Cruz:

I was running late, so I called to move my reservation back a bit and they said it was no problem. I showed up and they asked for my name, but they sat me at a really bad table when I asked for a seat near a window to watch the sunset. They eventually moved me after I asked, and the table they moved me to had a reserved sign with my name on it. Why didn't they put me at my reserved table in the first place? Then they...
