We went on a Friday night, the place was half full. The hostess saw us and immediately gave us a table. The waitress came right away to offer something to drink and gave us some time to check the menu. She came back and took our order. It took around 15 minutes to be ready. We got 2 pounds of the cajun shrimp. They were not too spicy, the temperature and flavor were great. I also ordered white rice which was also good... read more.

What User doesn't like about The Crab Bucket:

The servers are rude. They yell at you from across the room asking if you are dining in or if it's take out. Don't see the purpose of the sign at the entrance that says to wait to be seated, when instead they yell and get upset and rude towards you because you can't hear them. I hope management does something about the rude employees they have. read more. The The Crab Bucket originating from Salinas provides various flavorful seafood courses.
