Avert is one of our favorite restaurants. Food and service are usually excellent. Our most recent visit uncovered a couple of inconsistencies that otherwise would have resulted in an excellent experience. In past visits the chef would honor my wife's request to not include capers in the steak tartar. For some reason in this visit, the request was not honored (the capers are already in the mix was the answer we were... read more. You can use the WLAN of the place free of charge, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Avert Brasserie:

everyone at the table ordered the beef short rib entree for dinner but sadly none of us were impressed with the plating. in the past, it was served on a dinner plate. this time it was served in a bowl much to our surprise which diluted the appeal of the meal. we felt as if we were in a cafeteria or a noodle bar with a big bowl of soup. I would recommend using dinner plates again. thank you read more. Late at night still have a small but yet delectable meal? You can do that in this Brasserie - and at a reasonable price, and you can look forward to typical tasty French cuisine. Watching various sports events and competitions is equally one of the highlights of visiting this sports bar, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
