The Card of Ad Libitum from San Andreas includes about 87 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $10.7. What d likes about Ad Libitum:

I came here on my way home to have a cocktail and some tequila. The team was on point but the selections (for tequila at least) were not what I was looking for. I did not eat. I keep hearing mixed things about this venue but will come in soon for dinner and will adjust my rating after that. read more. What User doesn't like about Ad Libitum:

We had a brunch reservation but the chef didn't show up for work so they didn't open. Someone came out and told us after we stood outside for a while double checking our reservations and their hours. No notification was sent to reservations that they weren't opening so we took a car across town for nothing. We were visiting from out of town so we didn't have another opportunity to go read more. If you're hungry for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: delightful menus, prepared with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, In the morning they serve a extensive breakfast here. Moreover, there are scrumptious American dishes, such as burgers and grilled meat.
