We booked this for our anniversary meal. The food at Esca was outrageously good, great value for their course degustation tasting menu with wine pairing, service was impeccable and found the staff very pleasant, helpful and informative re: wine pairings. A great experience overall, would definitely recommend and visit again read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Esca Bimbadgen:

My wife and I both chose to have the four course option from the menu. Each of us had two courses which were of very poor quality. The Potato Gnocchi was dense and tough and did not have any real flavour. The Yellowtail Kingsfish Crudo was smothered in olive oil and the fish was not fresh. The Duck Breast was totally overcooked and grey not blushing pink as expected. Based on our experience Esca should not be marketi... read more.
