We have been to Douro a few times, enjoyed it and were excited to dine in its new location. Unfortunately, we did not find the food to be very good. We expected Portuguese food but got some kind of sad mix of watered down PortugueseChinese. Paella was a tasteless rice dish with very muted flavors. Honey chicken was disappointing version of Chinese takeout hot and sour chicken. Fried calamari served w same hot and sou... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Douro Bar:

The ambiance is beautiful but the food is horrific. Both meals were dry. I had the paella and it tasted like it was reheated, my guest had the ribs and also tasted like the food was reheated, ribs and rice. The price for the quality of the food was much too high. If the dishes were freshly cooked and delicious the prices would be ok. The service was also lacking. Our appetizers and entrees we served with no silverwar... read more. Douro Bar from Greenwich is a good option for a bar if you want to have a beer after work and hang out with friends, Furthermore, the visitors are thrilled with the exquisite Portuguese meals listed on the food menu. Following various sports events and competitions is equally one of the highlights of visiting this sports bar, Moreover, the menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially large diversity of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try.
