A fantastic good tyme place with this old school local pub look and feel. Their wings were perfectly cooked on request and their sauce was delicious - they have a house special sauce we ordered together with regular. The burgers are huge and you are beautifully overloaded with delicious frits. The French onion soup was also excellent as an extra. If you want a kind of private space, ask for the rear space area, as th... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential.
