The occasion was Ambler Restaurant Week. They were obviously not able to keep up. We reserved an outside table which was not ready when we arrived. We waited minutes to be seated and another minutes before the very harried server noticed us and provided a menu. They were very understaffed for a Friday night. Food did come out with a nice pacing and was well worth the wait. RW selections were great as were the present... read more. What User doesn't like about Trax Cafe:

We had tried this restaurant years ago and didn't enjoy it, but decided to give it another try during restaurant week. While we made a reservation through Open Table specifically for an outside seat, we were told when we arrived that outside seating was first come, first served. We waited and were eventually seated outside VERY close to the train tracks. Food was OK at best and not a good value at the pp fixed price... read more.
