This was a group dinner and it was served family style. The starter was a charcuterie board with brussel sprouts and cauliflower. The ducks were fried chicken, fillet mignon and fish. The dessert was the Karamell Whisky-Crunch-Cutard. You have many drinks options along with mocktails and many local options for beer or ipas. read more. What User doesn't like about Handle:

My husband and I came to the wedding day on a Friday night. We had the Larb salad and fave beans toast for beginners and they were fantastic. For the net I had the fried chicken that was good (although not unbelievable) and he had the NY Strip Steak that was relatively tasteless. The pages that were offered with everyone were incredibly little fun and we didn't excite them after we tried a bite of our own and everyon... read more.
