What User likes about La Cueva: This place was slamming! To begin, they welcomed us in there like they knew us for a solid 6 years. It wasn't forced either, they were just being them and I happened to walk I to that good energy. The food was real tasty...I'm not sure if I've been to a Mexican joint like this before. They are unique, and flavorful, and right on time. I'm down the street so this is a definite go-to from here forward. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about La Cueva: do not go to this place, that is the worst experience I have ever had, the owner is a psycho that starts screaming her out of no reason, I went a beer and then had to bribe the bartender to give me my debit card back no warning what the hell is going on here, living in the badest bar I have ever been! Come to this sports bar and enjoy a variety of small snacks and dishes while watching live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, because just eating and drinking is too simple!, The meat is freshly cooked here on an open flame.
