I have always feared to check places, but I had a legitimate incredible experience on this place. the person on the theke (which I accepted was the owner) spoke me through regional differences in food, gave me a free pita and was generally both knowledgeable and human. not the mention of eating, it was incredible. great pita, big part, good price. I am coming back read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Ali Baba Mediterranean:

eating decent when they actually want to be open, went recently during the business hours and was chased away by someone on their computer sitting on the door on their handy. Honestly, they simply take the trip to the inner city into the other position during the week, at least they care about their customers and eating will be fresher than it is in the rule here.
